Klatzkin Promotes Michelle Robb to Partner

HAMILTON, NJ (January 6, 2020) – Klatzkin is pleased to announce that Michelle Robb, CPA, has been named Partner. “Michelle is a highly-skilled, motivated, and client-oriented accountant, and we are excited to welcome her to the partnership,” said Tom Martin, CPA, and managing partner of Klatzkin. “We look forward to her continued success.” Robb is based in the firm’s Hamilton office and has more than 15 years of experience providing tax and compliance-related services to a diverse client base, including small businesses, estates, trusts, nonprofits, and individuals. She serves on Klatzkin’s estate administration committee and is a member of the Mercer County Estate Planning Council, where she has held previous leadership positions, including Past-President (2017-2018). Robb earned her M.B.A. from Rider University and her B.S. in Accounting from The College of New Jersey. She is a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the New Jersey Society of CPAs. Additionally, Robb exemplifies Klatzkin’s culture of giving back by her active involvement in serving as a board member for Interfaith Caregivers of Greater Mercer County and coordinating the firm’s annual food drive benefitting Arm in Arm.
